14 candidate students supported the interview. They must be ranked after candidates who have already obtained a degree or higher qualifications.

The first 7 of the 14 candidate students prevail for their background. The remaining 7 candidate students have obtained an equal position for merits, English skills and motivations.

The board, unable to formulate a ranking among them, decides to admit everyone to the Winter School, including the excesses 3 according to the call of application (24). The admission of the 3 additional students does not alter the nature of the course, of lectures and of interaction between participants.

Furthermore, it does not involve any additional burden for the ECLT center, as they are admitted without any benefit from the registration fee and they must contribute for their expenses and therefore they will be admitted once the fee will be paid.

Taking into account the above mentioned considerations, all the candidates listed above are admitted to the Technological Innovation and Law Winter School February 4-8 2019.

With regard to the exemptions from the payment of the fee, according to the agreements between ECLT and IUSS Pavia, Milan Bar Association and the International Relationship Committee (CRINT) of the Milan Bar Association, 20 positions will be fully covered: 12 fully covered by ECLT as already specified in the call; 4 positions will be fully covered by IUSS Pavia (pending the conclusions of the administrative procedures by IUSS Pavia); 2 by the Milan Bar Association (pending the conclusions of the administrative procedures by the Milan Bar Association); 2 by the CRINT of the Milan Bar Association (pending the conclusions of the administrative procedures by the CRINT).

Exempted from the payment of the fee:

1. Antonio Davola
2. Silvia Martinelli

3. Isabella Alberti
4. Alessandra Calvi
5. Joana Campos Carvalho
6. Mattia Falduti
7. De Dominicis Nicola
